The NELCDC is seeking referral partners to host monthly luncheons. The NELCDC is also seeking guest speakers. If you want to present your organization's programs to the NELCDC's referral partners, you are welcome! NELCDC strives to provide an environment where public and private entities can foster partnerships, hear about each others community-oriented programs, and learn how we can come alongside one another to better serve our clientele of individuals seeking to achieve the American dream of homeownership!

Would you like to host a luncheon or be a guest speaker?
