YWCA Child Development Center (CDC)

3101 35th Street, Lubbock, TX

Contact Person: Early Childhood Director, Regina Culver, call or email, regina.culver@ywc Lubbock.org

There are no fees or tuition for students enrolled for the Early Head Start program.

EARLY HEAD START PROGRAM:

All YWCA Early Head Start teachers have a Child Development Associates and significant training in the special needs of early childhood and the impact of high-risk factors in the home and family. There is frequent interaction with parents and an emphasis on helping parents develop strategies to support each child's specific needs.

At the YWCA Child Development Center (CDC), infants and toddlers learn through creative and responsive instruction in a nurturing environment designed to maximize their potential and prepare them for success.

Through the focused development of literacy and school readiness, we believe all children of Lubbock deserve the finest care and highest quality education. The YWCA, in collaboration with South Plains Community Action Association, offers early learning classrooms with the primary focus of stimulating a child's imagination and fostering their academic, social and emotional development.

Our classrooms utilize the Infant and Toddler Frog Street Curriculum, a comprehensive, research-based curriculum designed to integrate instruction across developmental domains and early learning disciplines. In conjunction with this, the classroom learning framework in the five essential domains are:

- Social and Emotional Development
- Language Development and Literacy
- Approaches Toward Learning
- Cognition and General Knowledge
- Physical Development and Health

Upon enrollment, a $40 annual membership fee is due. Each following year, the annual membership fee will be charged on September 1.

HEAD START PRE-SCHOOL PROGRAM:

All YWCA Head Start Pre-School lead teachers have at least a Bachelor's degree in Early Education and significant training in the special needs of early childhood and the impact of high-risk factors in the home and family. There is frequent interaction with parents and an emphasis on helping parents develop strategies to support each child's specific needs.

At the YWCA Legacy Child Development Center (CDC), young children learn through creative and responsive instruction in a nurturing environment designed to maximize their potential and prepare them for success.

Through the focused development of literacy and school readiness, we believe all children of Lubbock deserve the finest care and highest quality education. The YWCA, in collaboration with South Plains Community Action Association, offers eight early learning classrooms with the primary focus of preparing children for kindergarten and school readiness.

Our curriculum is the Texas OWL (Opening the World of Learning) a Comprehensive Pre- Kindergarten Curriculum. In conjunction with this, the classroom learning framework matches up with the Pre-K guidelines for the State of Texas. This includes:

- Physical Development and Health
- Social and Emotional Development
- Approaches to Learning
- Language Development
- Literacy Knowledge and Skills
- Mathematics Knowledge and Skills
- English Language Development
- Social Studies
- Logic and Reasoning
- Creative Arts Expression
- Science Knowledge and Skills

About the SOUTH PLAINS HOMELESS CONSORTIUM:

The South Plains Homeless Consortium, Inc., is an incorporated 501(c)3 group. This group of community agencies, organizations and advocates has two primary purposes:

- 1) to empower the community of homeless organizations and advocates through a continuum of care to address the causes of homelessness and needs of the people who are homeless and at-risk populations, and
- 2) to educate the public and political entities about homeless issues and possible solutions while avoiding duplication of services so the limited resources can be effectively and efficiently utilized.

One major goal of the consortium is to support development of a comprehensive, collaborative and census driven community plan to organize and deliver housing and services to meet the specific needs of people who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless. Emphasis is to empower people who are homeless move to stable housing and achieve maximum self-sufficiency.
